

Should KLOVE radio be displaced by any LPFM broadcaster there is no doubt a negative effect on my local community would result. KLOVE serves us locally by providing quality family-friendly programming around the clock that serves as a positive encouragement to my family and friends. The content broadcast is surely in the public interest as it brings this positive uplifting message continuously to all people without discrimination.